IT'S ALL IN THE LOCATION:

Chicago was built in a swamp; Colorado Springs is a victory over the desert; Albuquerque is between the shifting sands of the Rio Grande on the west and the desert mesa on the east;

WILLARD

THE GATEWAY

Has the location. It is at the junction of the Santa Fe Central and the Santa Fe "Cut-Off," the new trunk line from Chicago to the Pacific; it is a natural gateway to all points of the compass; it is surrounded by a fine grazing country with agricultural possibilities undeveloped; it has good water in abundant at a depth of thirty-five feet below the surface. It is owned by the

THE FARMINGTON FAIR.

Many People Expected to Take Advantage of the All Railroad Trip This Fall.

Special Correspondence New Mexican.
Farmington, N. M., Aug. 28.—The grade of the Denver & Rio Grande Durango-Farmington Railroad has reached this place and all gaps will be closed, the line completed and in operation within the next three or four weeks.

The people of Farmington have set as the date of their next annual fair, September 13 to 16, and in anticipation of the coming of an unusually large number of visitors, who will take advantage of the all-railroad trip at reduced rates of fare, extraordinary preparations are being made to play the part of host in a liberal and entertaining manner. The manifold products and resources of San Juan County will be displayed to an extent altogether worthy of this fruitful and resourceful section of sunny New Mexico, and will doubtless be sufficient to cause the average visitor from other parts to open his eyes in wonder.

On account of the fact that heretofore Farmington has been situated 60 miles from a railroad and that it could only be reached from the interior of the Territory by a long, cir-cuitous and expensive trip, the average citizen of New Mexico is unacquainted with the merits of this portion of the Territory. Heretofore, outsiders who have visited during the annual fairs, have come from Durango, Silverton, Ouray and other Colorado points, but this year Farmington is expecting many hundreds of visitors from Santa Fe, Albuquerque, Las Vegas, Raton, and from other places throughout New Mexico. It will be a rare opportunity to get acquainted with a town which is destined in the future to claim a large dot on the map of New Mexico, and with a section of country which will, during the next few years, be the scene of the greatest industrial development in the southwest.

Not only will visitors to the fair be given an opportunity to see the greatest display of fruits and agricultural products ever made before in the southwest, but for their entertainment there will be Indian dances, free fruits and melons, sports of various kinds, and last but not least, each visitor from outside of San Juan County will have a chance in drawing, each day of the fair, for a valuable town lot.
As Farmington is destined to become a city of several thousand inhabitants, within the next few years, the drawers of these lots, if they hold on to them for three years, may find themselves in possession of property valued at several hundred dollars.

As a final word to the readers of the New Mexican, Farmington would say "take the cars for Farmington." Come and see the big rivers, the beautiful valleys, the fields and the orchards. Come and see the garden spot of New Mexico, and incidentally enjoy the hospitality of its whole-souled and progressive people.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE DOCKETS.

The New Mexican Printing Company has prepared civil and criminal dockets especially for the use of justices of the peace. They are especially ruled, with printed headings, in either Spanish or English, made of good record paper, strongly and durably bound with leather back and covers and canvas sides; have full index in front and the fees of justices of the peace and constables printed in full on the first page. The pages are 10 1/2x6 inches.
These books are made up in civil and criminal dockets, separate, of 320 pages each, or with both civil and criminal bound in one book, 80 pages civil and 320 pages criminal. To introduce them they are offered at the following low prices:

Civil or criminal$4.00 Combination civil and criminal.....$5.00 docket, or 55 cents additional for a combination docket, they will be sent plainly whether English or Spanish printed heading is wanted. Address, NEW MEXICAN PRINTING CO.

MARRIAGE LICENSE LAW.

The new marriage license law requires probate clerks to post three copies of the new law in conspicuous places in each precinct. The New Mexican has printed the law neatly on card board and is now ready to fill orders in English or Spanish at fifty cents for each poster. Probate clerks should enter their orders immediately as the law goes into effect on April 14, 1906.
